What being a musician means to me:

Having the attributes of a Levite

Knowing your values in and outside the church

Having a prayer life to exercise playing music in church with anointing

Explanation:

A Levite is a Jewish man who is a descendent of the tribe of Levi, one of the 12 tribes of Israel.

Values in and outside of the church are just upholding the beliefs of the church.

Having a prayer life is a big part of playing music in church because God will step in when you have a prayer life.

Levites did more than just sing and play instruments. They were the guardians for the house of God. They were gatekeepers and workers of many things besides their main job. They also had a desire to worship God if you do not enjoy worshipping God in the department you're in, pray, and ask for guidance and if you need be, leave. There is no way that if you aren't enjoying what you are doing that you should stay.
